Warm Up II

Adithya Gundlapalli (A19143249)

Visual Design

- colors like red, gold, and black make it look exciting
- looks like a classic casino machine so it feels familiar
- the 777 is super clear so you instantly know its a win
- jackpot at the bottom shows the main goal
- the lever makes it feel more real and interactive

Game Mechanics

- just spin using button or lever
- match symbols to win
- random results every time
- really fast rounds so you can keep playing
- no learning needed, super easy

Users

- people who like gambling and big wins
- casual players who just want to chill
- busy people who want something quick
- people who like the thrill of randomness

Gamification

- jackpot makes people want to keep playing
- random rewards keep it interesting
- almost winning makes you want to try again
- fast loop makes it easy to keep going

Insights

- game is more about feeling than skill
- super simple so anyone can play
- winning looks and feels satisfying
- main hook is the chance of winning, not even the win itself

Persona

Name: Adithya

Details:
Adithya is a 21 year old college student. he has classes, gym, and other stuff going on so he doesn't have time for complicated games. he likes quick games he can play for a few minutes to relax. he’s competitive so even simple games feel fun if there is a goal like a jackpot. he isn't trying to gamble seriously, he just likes the feeling of maybe winning big.

Wants and Needs

- fast and easy gameplay
- clear rewards like jackpot
- simple and clean design
- something fun without thinking too much
- quick results after each spin

Doesn’t Want Doesn’t Need

- complicated rules
- slow gameplay
- too many ads or distractions
- confusing systems
- anything that feels unfair

User Stories

Story 1
As a college student, I want a simple spin button, so that I can play quickly and relax between things

Story 2
As a competitive user, I want a chance to hit a jackpot, so that I can feel excited even in a short time