Persona

Name: Larry

Age: 55

Details:

Larry is a foreign English teacher at a Chinese High School. He teaches students English and likes to organize students into small groups. He loves to use games to make class more active, and wants students to have fun in class.

Wants and needs:

He wants to use this slot machine to give extra points to winning teams, and likes simple games with clear rules. He wants all students to join easily and uses the slot machine as a class activity.

Doesn't want nor needs:

However, since the rules of China, he will use this slot machine to focus on teamwork, not gambling. So this slot machine must be just about fun but not for real money.

User stories:

- As a foreign English teacher, I want to split students into groups and let them earn extra points from the slot machine, so that the class feels more active and exciting.
- As a teacher in China, I want the game to be for fun only and not for gambling, so that it can be used safely in school.
